Talking Birds with the Centres for the History of Medicine in Dublin and Warwick present

A theatrical examination of diaspora, displacement and mental disorders in the 19th century

This land is cruel and unforgiving and many more have gone where I go, to seek not wealth but fairer living across the sea and far from Sligo

A Malady of Migration

Thurs 26 – Sat 28 June 2014
1pm and 7pm
Shopfront Theatre, 38 City Arcade, Coventry CV1 3HW (opposite Argos)

Tickets: £6 (£3) – 1pm, £8 (£6) – 7pm

Box Office: 0845 680 1926

Thursday evening show followed by expert panel discussion and reception. Saturday lunchtime show followed by post show discussion.

For CAPTIONING (subtitles) via mobile devices, email de@talkingbirds.co.uk in advance warwick.ac.uk/maladyofmigration talkingbirds.co.uk @birdmail #migration

Please be advised that this production contains references to mental health issues and historical practices which may be considered sensitive.
Age guidance: 12 and over.