The Dr Greg Wells Undergraduate Essay Prize

The Centre for the Study of the Renaissance is pleased to confer the Dr Greg Wells prize upon scholarly work of outstanding merit, quality and value in the field of Medieval and Renaissance studies. Two separate prizes will be awarded by the Centre to undergraduates of outstanding academic merit, based at the University of Warwick, one award will be at intermediate-year level and one at final-year level, for an essay of between 2000 and 5000 words, on any subject within the broader scope of Medieval or Renaissance studies. The award includes a cash prize of £75 and will be announced and given out at a suitable departmental function during the Summer Graduation ceremony period.

Conditions of entry

The essay must have been written in the current academic year by an undergraduate student enrolled at the University of Warwick.

It must be entered for the Prize in the original, unrevised state in which it was submitted to the candidate’s lecturer or tutor, or relevant electronic platform such as Tabula.

Submission must be made, by Wednesday 14th June 2017, through the student’s head of department/personal tutor/course or module convenor.

No more than three essays may be submitted by any department in one academic year.

An electronic copy of each entry and a coversheet should be emailed by the head of department/personal tutor/course or module convenor, to renaissance@warwick.ac.uk

The closing date for receipt of entries is Wednesday 14th June 2017.
