

‘Activities that encourage intercultural mixing are vital, but not enough in themselves unless they relate to institutional policy and are embedded in an institutional culture that genuinely values cultural diversity.’

Promoting Integration on Campus – Principles, Practice and Issues for further exploration.
University of Warwick commissioned by UKCISA, May 2014

- Develop an appreciation of different cultures
- Cultivate an understanding of global issues
- Showcase personal development opportunities
- Highlight international opportunities for Sussex students and staff from different backgrounds
- Foster a sense of global community

One World Sussex – 2016 and beyond

- Develop year round activity of One World Sussex
- Measure participation
- Beyond “appreciation and understanding” and towards “fostering sense of global community”
- Increase community engagement
- Develop Sussex-based research into student attitudes towards integration