

The History Subject Centre Presents a Midlands Network of Historians event ...

DATE:

Tuesday, 14 September
2010

10:00 – 14.00

VENUE:

Lecture Theatre 8,
Room 301, Arts Building,
University of Birmingham

TO BOOK A PLACE:

Visit us online at www.historysubjectcentre.ac.uk/events/

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Please contact Lisa Lavender
– L.A.Lavender.1@
warwick.ac.uk

or visit the History Subject Centre website at:
www.historysubjectcentre.ac.uk

‘Preach What you Practise’ Teaching & Learning Best Practice Workshop

- 9.45 – 10.00 – Arrival, registration, coffee
- 10.00-10.30 – Welcome from the organisers and the keynote address from Carl Chinn (University of Birmingham) – Preach What You Practise
- 10.30 – 11.00 – HumBox: Shared Resources as an Example of Good Practice (Lisa Lavender, History Subject Centre)
- 11.00 - 11.15 – Coffee
- 11.15 – 11.45 – ‘Choose Your Own Adventure’: Student-led Teaching in Large Lectures (Jolene Debert, University of Manchester)
- 11.45 – 12.15 – Good Practice in Work Place Learning (Harvey Woolf and Richard Hawkins, University of Wolverhampton)
- 12.15 – 12.45 – LUNCH
- 12.45 – 1.15 – ‘Don’t Look Back’: Reflections on the Experience of Enhancing New History Programmes Through The Use of Multiple Learning Technologies (Chris Szejnmann and Marcus Collins, Loughborough University)
- 1.15 – 1.45 – Historiography for Beginners (Marcus Collins)
- 1.45 – 2.00 – Roundtable Discussion

The History Subject Centre
Department of History
University of Warwick
COVENTRY CV4 7AL

t: 02476 150892
e: heahistorysubjectcentre@warwick.ac.uk
w: www.historysubjectcentre.ac.uk

