

Health Psychology @ Warwick

proudly presents its first network event on

Thursday 4th July 2013, 12.30-13.30
Room GLT3, Warwick Medical School

Come along to find out what Health Psychology @ Warwick can do to enhance your research and teaching.

With special guest speaker

Dr Tony Cassidy

DPhil., CPsychol., CSci., FRSA., AFBPsS., AFPSI., Chair, BPS Division of Health Psychology, Director of CHILD

University of Ulster

‘Travelling hopefully: Taking the positive way home.’

This event is open to both staff and students. For more information please contact
Dr Harbinder Sandhu: harbinder.k.sandhu@warwick.ac.uk

Dr Cassidy’s research interests include: Problem-solving style, Stress, coping and health, Child health and well-being and Family factors in health and well-being.

Current Research Projects include:

- * Psychosocial Aspects of In Vitro Fertilisation (IVF)
- * Stress and Health in Young Carers
- * Child Play and Health
- * Graduate Employment and Unemployment
- * Predictors of Educational Performance
- * Workplace Bullying
- * Family factors, sibling gender and Health
- * School-based interventions and children’s socioemotional health