Mums 4 Mums
Study Leaflet

Do you think you might have postnatal depression?

We are inviting women who are currently experiencing postnatal depression to take part in a study looking at the use of telephone support from women who have recovered from postnatal depression.

The study is being run by researchers at Warwick Medical School and is supported by health visitors at Warwickshire Primary Care Trust.

If you would like to know more about the study, please sign the attached consent form and return it to the research team at Warwick Medical School, University of Warwick, Coventry, CV4 7AL.

Alternatively you can get more information from the university webpage: www.warwick.ac.uk/go/mums4mums or contact Sukhdev Semb on: Tel: 02476 150508
Mob: 07974 955770 or by email: Sukhdev.sembi@warwick.ac.uk
Mums4Mums Research Study

Warwickshire Research Ethics committee number 08/H1211/94

Expression of Interest form for research participants

(Please tick each box)

1. I confirm that I have read the brief information sheet

2. I confirm that I would like more information about the study

Name ________________________________ (Please print)

Date ________________________________

Contact details
Address ________________________________

Postcode ________________________________

Telephone ________________________________

Signature ________________________________