

PARIS I-WARWICK PhD JAMBOREE

22-23 March 2002

Maison des Sciences Economiques

106-112 Bd de l'Hôpital

75013 Paris

Conference room, 6th floor

Coordinators: David Encaoua and Myrna Wooders

Friday, 22 march

9h-10h15, Session 1: Social interactions

- Ben Cartwright (Warwick) "Social conformity in large games with incomplete information"
- Olivier Baguelin (EUREQua) "Social capital and search of information"

10h15 11h30, Session 2: Preferences and incentives

- Iwan Barankay (Warwick) "Decentralization, yardstick competition, and the quality of public goods"

- Eric Danan (EUREQua) "Behavioral foundations of incomplete preferences"

11h30 11h45 Coffee break

11h45-13h, Session 3: Regulation and auction mechanisms

- Mathew Bennett (Warwick) "A Model of Auctions, Endogenous Regulation and Asymmetrical Informations"
- David Ettinger (CERAS) "Auctions and Shareholdings"

13h-14h Lunch, Maison des Sciences Economiques

14h-15h15, Session 4: Financial markets

- David Aikman (Warwick) "Financial Stress and Liquidity Traps" ,
- E. Kharroubi (DELTA) "Macroeconomic volatility, development and financial markets"

15h15-16h30, Session 5 : Topics in game theory

- Lucia Buenrostro (Warwick) "When are scoring rules voting games dominance-solvable?"
- Olivier Tercieux (EUREQua), "Risk-dominance, stability set and unicity of Bayesian equilibrium"

16h30-17h Coffee break

17h-18h15, Session 6: Education, work organization and wages

- Reamonn Lydon (Warwick), "How do the wage profiles of welfare recipients differ from non-recipients: An application to the UK working families tax credit" ,
- Marie Gardes-Balsan (CREST, Laboratoire de Microéconométrie), "Intertemporal labor supply of married women: An estimation using longitudinal French data on the last decade"

20h Dinner Restaurant Le Marty

Saturday, 23 march

9h-10h15, Session 7: Labor economics

- Pedro Martins (Warwick), "Inter-Firm Wage Differentials: Evidence From A Matched Panel"
- Marie Laure Michaud (EUREQua), "What is behind the costs of hiring and separation?"

10h15-11h30, Session 8: Trade and exchange rates

- May Arunanondchai (Warwick) "Can Indonesia gain from log export barriers?"
- Lise Patureau (EUREQua) "Pricing to market behavior and limited participation: an explanation of the exchange rate disconnect puzzle"

11h30 12h Coffee break

12h-13h45, Session 9: Industrial organization

- Pedro Posada (Warwick) "Leadership Cartels in Industries with Differentiated Products"
- Thierry Lafay (Laboratoire d'Econométrie X), "How uncertainty disciplines pre-commitment in risky markets"
- Anne Duchene (CERAS) "Welfare implications of illegal copies: The case of peer-to-peer distribution technologies"

13h45-14h30 Lunch, Maison des Sciences Economiques

14h30-15h45, Session 10: Public economics and urban economics

- Ben Zissimos (Warwick) "Tax competition revisited"
- Fabien Moizeau (EUREQua), "Role model effects and the organization of the city"

15h45-17h00, Session 11: Labor economics

- Véronique Janod (EUREQua) "Workers education and reorganization of work"
- Alexandros Zangelides (Warwick), "An Empirical Study of the Contribution of Employer Tenure on an Individual's Earning Profile"