

Programme for Warwick Graduate Conference in Political and Legal Theory 2016

- 09:00-09:45 Coffee and registration, Social Sciences building
- 09:45-10:00 Introduction and welcome
- 10:00-11.00 David Estlund, “What’s Circumstantial about Justice?”
Room So.11 – Chair: Adam Swift
- 11:00-12:05 Panel sessions 1
- 12:05-12:25 Coffee
- 12:25-1:30 Panel sessions 2
- 1:30-2:15 Lunch
- 2:15-3:20 Panel sessions 3
- 3:20-3:40 Coffee
- 3:40-4:45 Panel sessions 4
- 4:45-5:45 Cecile Laborde, “Is Liberalism Secular?”
Room So.11 Chair: Hwa Young Kim
- 5:45 Drinks at The Dirty Duck (pub on campus)

Panel Sessions

Session 1 – 11:00-12.05

A) Schmitt and Laclau (Room So.17) Chair: Adam Slavny

Emil Archambault – The public and the Private in Carl Schmitt: A case for Reciprocal Political Enmity

Pedro Moreira – Ernesto Laclau: Hegemony, Populism and Radicalism

B) Justice and Individual Conduct (Room So.13) Chair: Hwa Young Kim

Chris Marshall – Why Equality demands Egalitarian Occupational Choice but not forced labour

Marko Konjovic – The Many Subjects of Social Justice

C) Liberal Neutrality (Room So.18) Chair: Felix Pinkert

Cristobal Bellolio – Science, God, and the Promise of Liberal Neutrality

Christina Davis – Decriminalising polygamy in the UK: Reflections on policy change

D) Marriage (Room So.11) Chair: Fabienne Peter

Gah-Kai Leung – A Public Reason Defence of Same Sex Marriage

Jenny Brown – What's Wrong with Marital Establishment? Do Religious and marital establishment share relevant wrong-making features?

Session 2 – 12:25-1:30

E) Harm (Room So.13) Chair: Matthew Clayton

Sara Van Goozen – Beneficiaries and the Reduction of Merely Foreseeable Harm

Alex Kaiserman – Against Secondary Liability in the Criminal Law

F) Climate Justice (Room So.11) Chair: Adam Swift

Alexandre Sayegh – Climate Justice and the Ethics of Carbon Pricing

Daniel Callies – Climate Engineering and Playing God

G) Democracy and Markets (So.18) Chair: Hwa Young Kim

Adam Kern – Koch and Kant: The difference between donations and arguments

John Wilesmith – Why Firm Size Matters in a Just Society

H) Constitutional Issues (So.17) Chair: Mat Coakley

Daniel Harris – Majority Rule versus Judicial Review: A dose of realism

Jeanne Provencher – Can Rawlsian Civil Disobedience Encompass the Civil Rights Movement?

Session 3 – 2:15-3:20
------------------------------

I) Inclusion and Exclusion (So.13) Chair: David Axelsen

Maud Gauthier-Chung – Relational autonomy in a critical perspective: The problem of oppression and the problem of exclusion

Heather Swadley – Cognitive Disability and Democracy: Deliberating beyond reasonable speech acts

J) Ideal and Non-Ideal (So.18) Chair: Hwa Young Kim

Andrew Reid – Restrictions on Freedom of Expression under Non-ideal circumstances

Chetan Cetty – The Full Compliance Assumption and Feasibility Constraints in Ideal Theory

K) Democracy (So.17) Chair: Catalina Carpan

Yutang Jin – Demanding Partisanship: Why can political parties resolve the paradox of political representation?

Miles Maftan – Stability or not: that is the question

Session 4 – 3:40-4:45
------------------------------

L) Morally Unreasonable People (So.11) Chair: Hwa Young Kim

Kasper Ossenblok – Challenges for Left-Libertarianism

Anantharaman Muralidharan – A meta-theory for the full compliance assumption

M) Fairness and Equality (So.13) Chair: Tom Parr

Tom Rowe – Risk and the Unfairness of Some Being better off at the Expense of Others

Fernando Menendez – Unequal Opportunities and the Morally Relevant Distinction of their sources

N) Autonomy (So.11) Chair: Clare Heyward

Jens Damgaard Thaysen – Kantian Autonomy as the Limit of the law

Fay Niker – Can we ‘nudge’ citizens towards developing virtues?