

MindGrad

2010

University of Warwick Graduate Conference in the Philosophy of the Mind
Saturday 4th-Sunday 5th December 2010
University of Warwick, UK

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Fred Dretske

'I think I think, Therefore I am... I Think'

David Papineau

'Can We Really See A Million Colours?'

GRADUATE SPEAKERS

Tom McClelland (Sussex)

'Consciousness, Ignorance and the Explanatory Gap'

Kranti Saran (Harvard)

'Must All Bodily Sensations Feel to be Located on the Body?'

Gabriel Rabin (UCLA)

'Conceptual Mastery and the Knowledge Argument'

Melanie Rosen (Macquarie, Sydney)

'Dreaming Vicariously'

Keith Wilson (Warwick)

'The Sound of Silence'

Olley Pearson (Durham)

'Rationality and I'

Conference supported by:

- The Mind Association
- Warwick Philosophy Department
- The Analysis Trust
- Mind & Language
- Aristotelian Society

Contact
mind.grad@warwick.ac.uk

Register
<http://go.warwick.ac.uk/mindgrad/registration>

THE UNIVERSITY OF WARWICK

