What accounting do they really need?

This workshop will focus on the role of accounting information including dividend in equity valuation.

Topics also include:

- Valuation theory & accounting information
- Dividend irrelevance
- Fair value accounting & financial crisis

Keynote speakers

- Professor Stephen Penman
  Columbia Business School
- Professor Geoff Whittington
  University of Cambridge

Including presentations by

- Professor Richard Barker
  University of Oxford
- Professor Colin Clubb
  King's College London
- Professor John Forker
  University of Bath
- Professor William Rees
  University of Edinburgh
- Professor Andrew Stark
  University of Manchester

Please book your attendance in advance via Dr Shahed Imam  Shahed.Imam@wbs.ac.uk
Associate Professor of Accounting, Warwick Business School
Reporting to shareholders: What accounting do they really need?

October 19, 2012

9:30-10:00  Registration

10:00-10:10  Welcome speech: Prof. Mark Taylor, Dean, WBS

10:15-11:45  Prof. Stephen Penman, Columbia Business School

11:45-12:30  Discussion by Prof. Richard Barker (including Q&A), University of Oxford

12:30-13:30  Lunch at Scarman House

13:30-14:15  Paper I: Prof. Colin Clubb, King’s College London

14:15-14:45  Discussion by Prof. William Rees (including Q&A), University of Edinburgh

14:45-15:15  Tea

15:15-16:00  Paper II: Prof. Andrew Stark, University of Manchester

16:00-16:30  Discussion by Prof. John Forker (including Q&A), University of Bath

16:30-17:00  Comments by Prof. Geoff Whittington, University of Cambridge
           (including closing remarks from Prof. Stephen Penman)