Terms and conditions of the Initial Teacher Training bursary scheme 2017/18

The National College for Teaching and Leadership (NCTL) has arranged for the University of Warwick (the University) to determine eligibility for and make payment of bursaries, where applicable, on behalf of the NCTL to Initial Teacher Training (ITT) students. The terms and conditions referred to and summarised here are the terms and conditions that NCTL requires the University to apply to applicants.

In order to be eligible to receive a NCTL bursary through the University you must:

- be an eligible student for the provision of UK student support.
- be training in an eligible ITT subject.
- hold a UK first degree or equivalent.
- be taking a qualifying postgraduate ITT course in England.
- agree to comply with the terms and conditions of the bursary scheme.
- not already hold QTS, or be eligible to receive QTS.
- not be undertaking paid teaching work when receiving the bursary.
- not be simultaneously undertaking any other ITT course, training scheme or programme leading to QTS.
- agree to notify the University promptly of any changes to your bank account and address details.
- agree to seek a teaching post in England upon successful completion of your course.
- agree to notify the University promptly if you intend to withdraw from your course.
- agree to repay any funds which you were not eligible to receive if you withdraw from the University (this applies to University initiated withdrawals as well as student initiated withdrawals).

Payment of the bursary:
The bursary will be paid in 10 monthly instalments from 5 October 2017 to 5 July 2018 according to the payment schedule below set by NCTL. Bursaries of £15,000 or more include 2 additional payments which are subject to further requirements (see below).

*To receive the additional payments you must:
- be in attendance on the course on the date of each payment.
- in the case of the February additional payment, be in attendance on the ITT course on 1 January 2018.
- in the case of the July additional payment, successfully complete your ITT course.
If you permanently withdraw from the University:
- you will be entitled to be paid the bursary for each month up to the month in which you withdraw.
- you will only be entitled to receive the bursary payment for the month in which you withdraw if you were in attendance on the 5th of that month.
- following withdrawal all future payments will cease.

If you take a period of temporary withdrawal from your course:
- you will be entitled to be paid the bursary for each month up to the month in which you withdraw.
- you will only be entitled to receive the bursary payment for the month you withdraw if you were in attendance on the 5th of that month.
- payments for the remainder of the academic year will cease.
- when you return to your course, payments will resume from the next applicable month (the next month in which a payment was due) providing you are fully enrolled.
- you will only be eligible to receive the remaining bursary award up to the value that was available in the year you started your course.

If you receive an overpayment of your bursary:
- the debt will be transferred to your University account and you will be required to repay the amount immediately.
