Dear Sir and Brother,

Could you provide me with the names and addresses of the Trades Councils of the towns in the enclosed lists. The reason for this is that we are planning to take our current Mobile Productions to as wide a field as possible. These towns are roughly within a hundred miles of London. The plays in question are "The Ragged Trousered Philanthropists", and "The Rochdale Pioneers". The latter play the latest addition to list, is about the early attempts to build the first Co-OP shop. The former play needs no introduction to you I am sure, and has already had an enthusiastic reception where-ever it has been shown.

Your help would be gratefully appreciated by me and I eagerly await a favourable reply.

If you have the time perhaps you would care to see the opening performance at the Wimbledon Town Hall on Dec 2nd. for which I enclose two tickets.

With Best Wishes,

Yours Fraternally,

(Harry Johnson)
 Mobile Organiser.
