

Cup with Floral Motif

China, Jingdezhen kilns

Qing dynasty, Kangxi period (1662-1722)

Porcelain with overglaze enamels

BATEA 715

Famille noire wares, which featured a predominance of black enamel, were among the most desirable wares of the eighteenth century. This cup was formerly in the collection of Augustus the Strong (1670-1733), King of Poland, and still bears the inventory mark on the base.

© MEAA

THE UNIVERSITY OF WARWICK