University of Warwick, Humanities Building, Saturday 7 May 2016

‘Reflecting the Parish’

10.30–11.00  Registration & coffee (Humanities, Graduate Space, Fourth Floor Annexe)
11.00–11.15  Introduction – Beat Kümin, University of Warwick (all sessions in HS.45, Floor 5)
11.15–12.15  Keynote: ‘In the Nave with Chaucer’ – Ellen K. Rentz, Claremont McKenna College
12.15–13.15  Lunch (Graduate Space)
13.15–14.45  Session 1: ‘Parish and Family’
  - ‘Perceptions and Expectations of the Elizabethan Clergy Wife: Evidence from within the Parish’ – Anne Thompson, University of Warwick
14.45–15.15  Tea (Graduate Space)
15.30–17.00  Session 2: ‘Parish, Place and Identity’
  - “noþing ells but kepe riȝt mesure”: Cultivating Moderation in Eating and Drinking for the Community in the Book of Vices and Virtues – Sunyoung Lee, Arizona State University
  - ‘Parish registers and religious communities in south Germany’ - Eva Marie Lehner, Universität Duisburg-Essen
17.00–18.00  ‘Context, comment and outlook’, with wine reception and general discussion

For updates see http://my-parish.org/events/parish-symposium-2016-reflecting-the-parish; Contact: Beat Kümin: b.kumin@warwick.ac.uk; Figure: Tower Capsule Chronicle of 1655; District Archive of Gersau.