Certificate in Education and Training – level 4
Blended Learning

This qualification develops practical teaching skills and can prepare teachers to work in a wide range of contexts. You need to be teaching or have a teaching placement to undertake this qualification as there is a requirement for a minimum of 30 hours of practice. This certificate has replaced the CTLLS qualification.

Starts: October 2015
Qualification: 36 credits NQF Level 4
Entry requirements: Subject specific qualification at level 3, English at Level 2 and Maths at Level 1. A cleared DBS check and a subject specialist mentor. A teaching placement or be in a teaching role that provides at least 30 hours of practice.
Course dates: Six face to face full days supported by a minimum of 30 hours of online study, 3 assignments and 3 observations. 13th October, 10th November, 15th December 2015, 26th January, 23rd February, 15th March 2016 Completion April 2016
Fees: £1200

The course covers:
- understanding roles, responsibilities and relationships in education and training;
- planning to meet the needs of learners;
- delivering teaching or training;
- assessing learners;
- using resources in education and training.

Course suitable for individuals who:
- want a qualification which focuses on practical teaching;
- are currently teaching and want to have their experience and practice accredited;
- are not currently teaching but can meet the minimum teaching practice requirement of 30 hours;
- have the potential to study at level 4, which has the same level of demand as the first year of an undergraduate degree;
- are willing to undertake an initial assessment of their skills in English, mathematics and ICT, record their development needs and follow an action plan to address them where necessary.

Places for these courses are limited and cannot be reserved. They are offered to those who have successfully completed the application process.

For more information and an application form please visit the website or contact Penny Ottewill on 07920531142 or cll.itt@warwick.ac.uk

warwick.ac.uk/cll/